Access to and use of this GDCC website is provided to you by MRA Service Company Limited ("MRASCo", "we", "us"). As a user of this website, (referred to as "you/your"), you acknowledge that any use is subject to the terms and conditions below, (which includes any other important hyper-linked sections).

The use of this website is limited to that permitted under the terms of the Master Registration Agreement ("MRA"), including any subsidiary documents, and any GDCC Access Agreement between you (or the organisation you are accessing this website on behalf of) and the GDCC operator, MRASCo.

For all users:

- You agree to be responsible for making all arrangements necessary for you to have authorised access to the GDCC website. If you are provided with a user identification code, password or any other piece of information as part of our security procedures, you must treat such information as confidential, and you must not disclose it to any third party.

- As the named user, you accept responsibility for restricting access to your login account and only you may access the GDCC website using your account. You agree to accept responsibility for all activities carried out using your account. If you believe that your password has or is likely to become known to anyone else that would lead to your account being used in a manner incompatible with these terms and conditions or any provision of the relevant GDCC Access Agreement, you must inform MRASCo immediately using the contact details provided on the MRASCo Website at https://www.mrasco.com/

- In accessing the GDCC website, you agree that you shall only use content of the website for its intended use. Any information which you access, or which is made available to you through your user account is confidential and may only be used in accordance with the relevant GDCC Access Agreement.

- You must not share such confidential information with any other person, company or organisation who is not a party to (or employees by a party to) that agreement. You are not permitted and agree not to copy, broadcast, download, store (in any medium), transmit, show or play in public, adapt or change in any way the content of this or any part of the GDCC website for any purpose whatsoever other than its intended use as set out in the relevant GDCC Access Agreement.

- You agree to obtain prior written approval from MRASCo to create a link from any other website to the GDCC.

- You agree to retain any information obtained from machine-to-machine interactions, in accordance with data retention and deletion policies, and no longer than necessary for the purpose for which it was obtained.
In addition, for all company ‘Master Admin Users’ (MAU):

- You agree to create user accounts to provide access to the website, on the condition a lawful approved business justification has been supplied with the access request and supports current business operations.
- You agree not to provide user account access to information or system settings beyond the stated approved business justification.
- You agree to periodically review and remove user account access, including when notified, when business justification has expired.

MRASCo reserves the right to disable any user identification code or password, whether chosen by you or allocated by us, at any time, if in our opinion you have failed to comply with any of the provisions of these terms and conditions or the relevant GDCC Access Agreement.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the MRA, MRASCo reserves the right to change these terms and conditions at any time by notice on its website at https://www.mrasco.com/. You should review regularly the information placed on the MRASCo website to ensure that you obtain timely notification of any such changes. Continued use of the website after changes have been posted shall be deemed to constitute your acceptance of any amended terms and conditions.
